When the prohibitionists convince a majority of the people of this State to their view, then prohibition will be possible, and not before. In the meanwhile by opposing measures which are intended for the amelioration of the liquor traffic, the prohibitionists are really fostering the liquor traffic in its worst form, and are doing just what the liquor sellers prefer most to do. —Philadelphia Press.

Files are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, bleeding and itching piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the tumors, allaying the intense itching, and affecting a permanent cure. Price fifty cents. Address the Dr. Bosanko Medicine Co., Piqua Ohio. Sold by A. F. Streitz.

The twelve games of ball between the Chicago and New York and New York and Detroit have been witnessed by 114,000 people.

We believe that many, if not the majority, of the mugwumps are at heart Democrats on the great principles which he mentions, but the trouble is that they are one-sided men, and the one idea which possesses them is a very insignificant idea in comparison with the real, vital issues before the country. —Louisville Courier Journal.

B. B. Burley, proprietor of the Burley House, Belle Plaine, Iowa, relates his experience as follows: "I have had the opportunity of testing the merits of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in several instances in severe and dangerous cases of cholera morbus. From my experience in the use of this medicine I can recommend it with pleasure. Every one traveling should have it and no family should be without it." Sold by Gray & Co.

Over 6,000 "shoe-lasters" at Brockton, Mass., have been on a strike for three weeks, and are yet out, because one poor old man, not a member of their order, was given a chance to earn bread for his family. They have already lost $220,000 in wages, and if they have not also lost their self-respect as well it is not because there is no reason for it. Men in striking for freedom for themselves should not attempt to make slaves of others.

The Leavenworth Times takes the following view of the "Nebraska Idea": "The Nebraska idea of a popular vote to indicate choice for United States senator does not promise any great advance on constitutional methods. A popular vote would not have elected Charles Sumner, when he first put forward by the coalition in Massachusetts. The Nebraska idea assumes that the voters scattered know more than their representatives in assembly."

A discussion is going on in Europe concerning the distance at which large objects of the earth's surface may be visible. Emil Metzger mentions that he once saw, with some difficulty, Keizerspeick, in Sumatra, when distant 110 English miles; and he also made out Gug Merapi, in Java, when 180 miles away. From the Piz Mardun near Dissentis, E. Hill has seen Mont Blanc, the intervening space measuring about 110 miles. J. Starkie Gardner states that Mont Blanc is visible from the Piz Langard, though distant three degrees. In Greenland, Mr. Whyper beheld a mountain from which he was separated 120 miles; and from Marsailles, Zach saw Mount Canigou at a distance of 158 miles. The whole range of the Swiss Alps has been looked upon by J. Hippisley while 200 miles away; while Sir W. Jones has affirmed that the Himalayas have appeared to view from the distance of 224 miles. —Medical News.

Gray & Co., the popular druggists positively assert that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is the safest and best treatment for griping pains, diarrhoea, cholera, morbus, or summer complaint, and they know! It is not only recommended but guaranteed, and is just such a medicine as should be kept in every house.

A singular case of suicide is reported at Council Bluffs. A man was seen to go out in the river at daybreak in a skiff. At a distance of about fifty yards from shore he stopped rowing, stood up, looked in all directions, and, being apparently satisfied that he was unobserved, he took a number of articles from his pocket, tied them in a bundle, fastened a stone to it, and threw the bundle into the stream. He then fastened one end of a rope to the bow of the skiff, hastily tied the other end about his neck, and jumped as far out as he could, sinking immediately. Some persons who were watching him, but had not suspected his intention, now became alarmed, and as soon as they could procure a boat they went out and tried to save him, but were too late. He was past resuscitation when they took him out of the river. Later in the day a search was made for the bundle he had thrown into the water. When recovered it was found to contain a photograph of an actress, a flask of whisky and a copy of the St. Joe Gazette. It was conjectured that the poor man did not wish to have any of these articles found on his body.

The idea prevails largely in our current literature that the young men of the "new south" are full of force and energy, eager to grapple the difficulties of their situation, and quite appear to wring success from unwilling fortune. The picture is not one wholly of fancy. There are such young men among us, and they are illustrating what may be done in the new order of things amid which they are thrown. But they are not very numerous — are, in fact, painfully exceptional. The great bulk of our young men are of the opposite type. They go about business, if they go at it at all, in a half hearted way, as if they regarded failure as a foregone conclusion. A great many do not engage in any steady vocation, but accept a little job by which they can earn a few dollars. Perhaps there never were so many men who can not be said to be pursuing any regular calling. An ambition to get behind a counter or to secure a travelling agency for a business house, is what generally takes possession of the minds of our young men. There is a turning away from agriculture as if it were not a calling which promises to patience, energy and industry the very best rewards. We must own it that the bold, ambitious young man who is willing to forego present ease and display, and who will not be content with an expedient that may meet the present emergency, is an exception among us. There is a good chance to lay the foundations of a fortune now as there ever was if young men will only exercise the proper industry and economy. —Atlanta Sunny South.
